Pneumoencephalography

– X-ray visualization of subarachnoid spaces and ventricles by use of gas (such as air) contrast – obsolete neuroimaging technique!

- described by Walter Dandy in 1918.
- air is injected via:
  a) lumbar puncture
  b) ventricular puncture
- patient position is manipulated to accomplish air movement.
BIBLIOGRAPHY for ch. “Diagnostics” → follow this LINK >>